Eagle Bay, British Columbia

Eagle Bay is part of the growing Sorrento/Blind Bay region, whose population of 5,000 enjoys local medical, retail and commercial services. The settlement began its history at the turn of the century.

Today, Eagle Bay supports a general store with post office and liquor outlet, fire hall, church and active community centre. The area is known to attract skilled artisans, writers and professional people. Shuswap Lake offers a wide range of recreational activities.
